Albany Records Announces Details of Mark Gustavson's New Album "Dissolving Images"

ALBANY, NY — July 1, 2013 — Albany Records announces the worldwide release on July 1st of "Dissolving Images" (Troy1424), an album of chamber music by the award-winning composer Mark Gustavson.

The album contains stunning performances of his chamber music by such new music luminaries as pianist Lisa Moore performing Dissolving Images; clarinetist Ed Gilmore's soulful interpretation of Trickster and brilliant soloist in Quintet with other members of Contempo; the New York ensembles Either/Or and Parnassus perform with aplomb the demanding chamber ensemble works Jag and A Fool's Journey respectively.

Gustavson's music is passionate while being unsentimental and soulful, with a wide range of influences including jazz, Southeast Asian and Middle Eastern musics. This album is certain to bring a larger audience to his imaginative and adroitly constructed chamber works, the music of a uniquely independent voice and keen ear.
